

Gallipolis Elks Lodge #107

2020

Past Exalted Ruler's Association Scholarships

Educational scholarships are available to graduating seniors from Gallia and Meigs Counties, Ohio and Mason County, West Virginia. All amounts awarded will be paid directly to the college or university of the applicant's choice. Awards will be based on the applicant's financial need and scholastic and leadership qualities. The applicant should print in ink or type the needed information on the application form and should see that all parts of the application form are completed. The application must be accompanied with an official transcript of the student's grades, a copy of ACT and/or SAT results and at least two letters of recommendation.

All scholarship recipients will be asked to submit a recent photograph and a brief biography (names of parents or guardian(s), college they will be attending, course of study, etc.) for media purposes. All recipients must also provide the Past Exalted Ruler's Association the mailing address of the Admissions Office of the institution they will be attending and their student identification number, if available. Failure to comply with these requirements will void such award.

The deadline for the return of the applications to the Gallipolis Elks Lodge is Monday, July 6, 2020. Please complete the 2020 Past Exalted Ruler's Association Scholarship Application and return it to:
